Each defendant faces a minimum mandatory 10 years' imprisonment up to life imprisonment and a fine of up to $4 million. Of the 22 defendants, 14 were arrested earlier this morning, 3 were already in state custody on other charges and the following 5 defendants remain at large: Texas Arnell Gobern, James Rudolph Chiles, Sheldon Jerrod Johnson, Patrick Anthony Hughes, and Willie H. Murphy.

According to the Complaint, the arrests and charges are the result of a long term investigation by the Drug Enforcement Administration and the Orlando Police Department into narcotics trafficking occurring in the Tangelo Park area of Orlando. The Complaint alleges that Bellamy was the head of an organization that distributed multiple kilograms of cocaine and multiple ounces of crack throughout the Orlando area. It is alleged that the Bellamy organization was supplied with cocaine by Jamaican nationals Able, Dunkley, Hughon Brown, Ainsworth Brown, and Hughes. It is also alleged that Bellamy was distributing large quantities of Ecstasy in association with Ortiz. It is alleged that the other named defendants played various roles in the organization to assist the distribution of the drugs.

A Complaint is merely an allegation that there is probable cause to believe that a defendant has committed a violation of the federal criminal laws. Every defendant is presumed innocent until, and unless, proven guilty.

U.S. Attorney Paul I. Perez said, "These arrests show the continued commitment of the United States to assist local law enforcement in their efforts to stem the flow of drugs into Orlando neighborhoods and make the streets safer for children."

The case was investigated by the Orlando Division of the Drug Enforcement Administration and the Orlando Police Department. Assistant United States Attorney Matthew H. Perry is prosecuting the case.
